

Photo Homework Assignment
Morning Session – Wednesday, July 29th
Session Title: My Heart is One of Darwin's Finches Learning to Fly

Play and explore taking a variety of photos using some of the suggestions below to generate images for your You are the Object Portraits. Select your three favorite images and upload them in the _____.

- Photograph a transparent object-where you can see one thing through another.
- Photograph a reflective object; include the patterns reflected in the metal, glass or mirror.
- Hold up a mirror to an object and photograph the object with its mirror image.
- Take a birds-eye view (from above).
- Take an ant's-eye view (from the ground).
- Fill the frame with the object.
- Take a photo of one frame through another.
- Set the object in someone's hand or lap — take a close up shot.
- Take a photo of an old family photo-fill the frame.
- Work with a color palletete — take a series of photos that are primarily one or two colors.
