

HOW WE LEARNED TO

FLY

HABLA SUMMER
TEACHER INSTITUTE

JULY 18 - 22, 2022

My grandmother had learned to fly
from the people who came before.

*They were aunts and uncles and cousins
who were brought here on huge ships,
their wrists and ankles cuffed in iron,
but, my grandmother said,
nobody can ever cuff
your beautiful and brilliant mind.*

*So our people learned to fly, she said.
They dreamed a thing and made it happen.
Closed their eyes and flew away home.*

*Lift your arms, my grandmother said, close your eyes,
and remember somebody somewhere at some point
had to figure out they could fly.*
