

HOW WE LEARNED TO FLY

Session Date/Time: WEDNESDAY, JULY 20 / 9:15am - 4:00pm

Time / Facilitator	Activity	Tech/Materials
10:00-10:30 Marimar	Reflection - Wows/Wonders
10:30-10:50 Kurt	Building Community Patterns-Movement-Ensemble - Jump - Go! - Move-Freeze-Sculpt-Follow-Break - Move-Freeze-Arms Up, Arms Down - 1234 Ensemble Movement (with Darío)	Instruments (Darío)
10:50-11:10 Marimar	That Reminds Me Of . . . - Groups of four - Tell a brief story about your history - how you became who you are today - feel free to reach far back into the past to your to your ancestors. - Another person who thinks of a story interrupts and says . . . “ that reminds me of ” (allow space for each person to participate). When listening listen as the most attentive person in the world. - Model with four people on the “stage”
11:10-11:30 Marimar	Abuela’s Greatest Gifts - Reading walk - put everyone in pairs. Read and discuss the story together. - What are the gifts you’ve received from your ancestors?	text photocopies 1 per participant
	Break - Transition inside
11:30-12:00 Marimar (inside)	List - Review the way Martinez describes the gifts in the writing. What do you notice in how she expresses the gifts? - Marimar models - Return to the room and list and expand the gifts you’ve received from your ancestors.	slide from How We Learned to Fly
12:00-1:00 Kurt	Performance Groups - Combine the writing into a collage poem

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Prepare a performance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - everyone's voice - all analog - no props, chairs - fluidity - smooth transitions and movements
1:00 - 1:45	Lunch
	The power of a room

Model Poem by Marimar Patrón Vázquez:

My hair, the icon of visibility, rebelión, que pasada de mi abuela, a mi, a mi hija
Las historias, that had filled my childhood, my home, my classroom
La risa, que a veces es difícil encontrar, pero que siempre está en su foto,
La posibilidad de cambiar mi historia, al contarla y contarla y contarla,
Lo apodos, that allow us the freedom to choose how we want to be called,
Movimiento, como el viento, el huracán la brisa y la tempestad

These are their greatest gift to me / estos son sus más grandes regalos para mi